Fire Destroys Big Cotton Warehouse - Heavy Loss

Up till last Friday night, Hamlin had been extremely fortunate in not having any fire damages in its vast amount of cotton stored in the more than dozen big warehouses here.

The second modern warehouse ever built in Hamlin and perhaps the second one in Jones County, the Harden Storage No. 1 warehouse, went down in red-hot heat about 2 A. M. Saturday morning, Aug. 16.

The fire alarm was sounded about 1:30 A. M. but by then the entire 1400 bales were a red-hot mass. The Fire Boys were soon pouring several high-pressure streams on the cotton and so fast and strong was their work that within a short while it was clear that there would be some salvage of the cotton, and the nearby Rockwell Lumber Yard was out of danger. Streams of water continued and for once it was proven a fact that when the wind is not strong, when the pressure pumps are worked with plenty of water, some cotton can be saved in a big warehouse fire.

Once before in Hamlin, a big warehouse shed caught fire and went completely to ashes. That was true also in a Stamford fire last February during a big sandstorm when nearly 4,000 bales were a complete loss.

The Harden Storage, operated by T. E. Harden, Pioneer Gin owner and manager, had about 1400 bales in their No. 1 House, most of the cotton being of the 1937 crop. It was fully covered by insurance carried by the Morgan Insurance Agency.

Just how the fire started is only a conjecture. It will be recalled that Friday afternoon a big rain and electrical storm came. That could have started a slow fire hours before it broke out to cause the alarm. The entire area about the warehouse was wet and ditches and low places full of water.

Perhaps it will take all this week to drag out the blackened bales and make sure all the fire is out. Tractors and trucks and many hands worked night and day pulling the oozy, mushy, black bundles from their resting place and line them up for inspection and water soaking.

Reports are that a "Picking Plant" in Dallas will take the cotton and recondition the bales for the insurance company. The percentage of loss will vary in the bales. Some greater than others, but the total loss will range from near 80 per cent down below 50 per cent. In connection with the report of this large fire, the Herald heard one of the leading fire boys say that he wanted the public to know that the fire boys did not appreciate the way sightseers got in their way while the cotton fire fight was on. He also wanted to learn who was so careless as to drive over one of the fire hose and burst it right when it was needed so badly. Really bursting a fire hose is "sabotage". Generally, sightseers are a hindrance, but it is human for one to like to see a fire department conquer the blaze. But it is serious to burst a hose.

Mrs. Park's Brother, Air Instructor, Killed

The friends of Mrs. D. F. Park, of Hamlin, will sympathize with her in the loss of her brother, Wayne Wireman, a flying instructor at a college in Monroe, La., who was fatally injured in an auto accident there early last Sunday.

Young Wireman was a son-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Hamblen, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Abilene, and formerly pastor in Hamlin. He married Oberia Hamblen, whom many will remember here when a little girl.

Burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery Abilene, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Malone returned to their home in Glendale, Arizona, after a week with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. L. K. Malone. This Arizona man says he has had plenty of trouble getting laborers. This is a good hint to some men who want work. They pay from 20c to 50c per hour, depending on the kind of work.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson and Clydene will leave Saturday for Denton to attend the graduating exercises Saturday night of Guy Wilson from North Texas State College. Mrs. Wilson will participate in the college ceremony by hooding her son just prior to his receiving the Bachelor of Science degree.

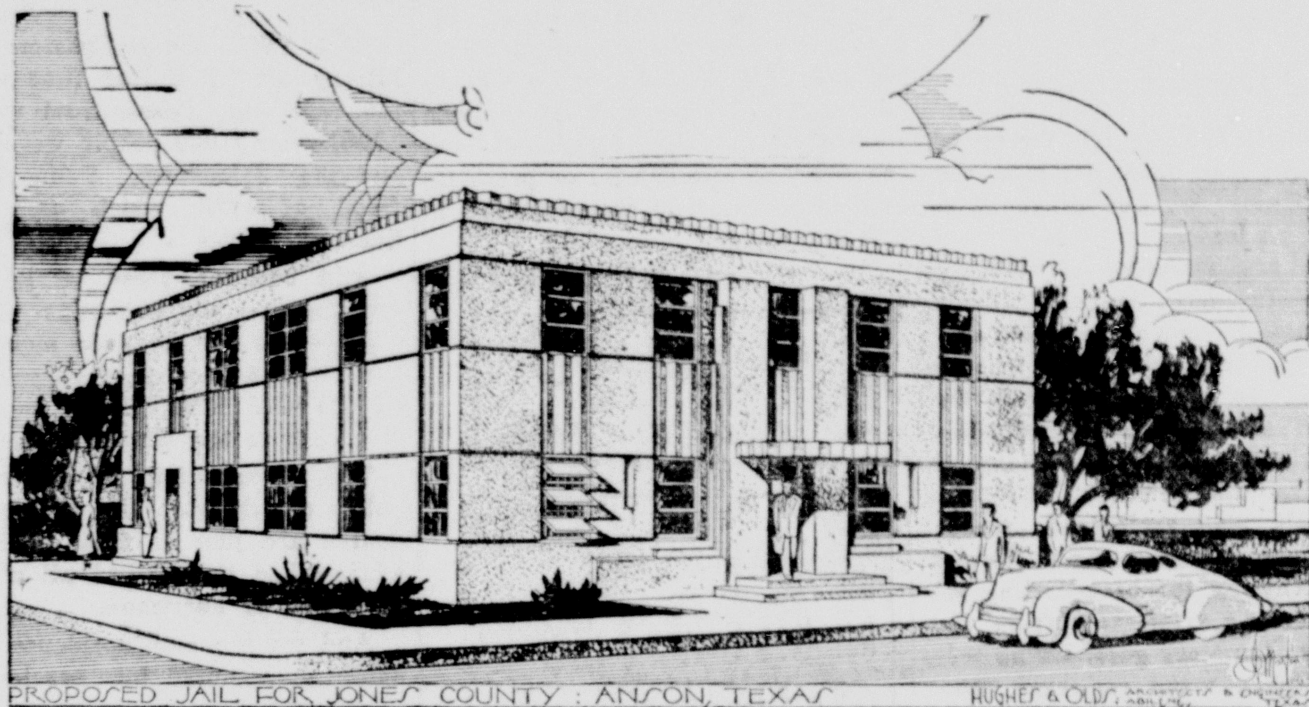

The Herald has a clipping from a Sulphur Springs paper telling of the death of W. S. Elliott, age 79 years, a former railroad man on the Orient in Hamlin. Some of the older citizens will remember this family in our early days.

W. N. Temple returned Friday from Lamesa where he had been called because of the illness of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Earl Temple. Mrs. Temple was taken to Dallas for treatment and was able to return to her home Monday of this week.

Betty Jo Wells who has been seriously ill in an Abilene hospital, is reported to be much improved and will be able to return home this week.

Miss Lucile Nicholson, who is manager for the York Store at Crosbyton, spent the week end at home.

Jones County People To Vote Saturday On Bonds

To Build New County Jail - Repair Court House

Some time in the early part of this 1941, Ye Editor visited the Jones County Jail in Anson. It was our first time to be within its walls, in all the 27 years in Jones County. You may remember what we said we saw, and the terrible words we used to try to paint a picture for the people of this end of the county to cause them to realize what an unsanitary place we have for the imprisonment of those who are arrested or confined in the county jail.

To be consistent, we must call your attention to the need of this again and then if the voters fail to OK the proposition this Saturday, August 23, the reflection will then be on the people.

The order for this election has attracted but little attention, as only one paper in the county was used to notify the people of the election. This is another proof that the "suffering public" must rely upon the papers for information and conditions that exist in public affairs.

The usual voting places have been assigned, and the usual requirements in general elections will prevail. It is perhaps to the point here to call attention to the fact that in Bond Elections, only property tax payers are allowed to vote. All bond issues call for a mortgage on property and only those who may have such should have a voice in placing it under "bond."

Now jails are needed. If one is needed it should be at least decent. The old, improperly built, unsanitary outfit is not in line with the high ideals and wishes of the good people of Jones County. Your vote may be needed to carry this proposition. And remember the Court House needs repairing badly, $15,000 is designated to do the job. The total is $60,000 for jail and court house.

The building is to be 61 by 50 feet, two stories high, and is to be of monolithic concrete. The first floor will have a jailer's apartment composed of two bedrooms, a large living room, kitchen, dinette and bath. The front half of the first floor is to be the sheriff's office, a private office, jail storage, two over-night cells, and a complete fingerprint room. The second floor is to have accommodations for twelve Negro felons, sixteen white felons, four juveniles, four Negro women,

REVIVAL MEETING

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Luther Savage, regular Minister of the Church, will be back for the regular services of the week, beginning Sunday morning. Brother Savage has spent the summer in the state of Colorado, where he has been preaching and attending school. Let's make this Lord's Day a great occasion for the Church. Let us begin it right by being in Bible study with a well prepared lesson.

My work with the Church has been most pleasant to me. The additional contacts with the community that this work has permitted me to have, have been quite pleasant. I am grateful for added friendships and blessings that have come my way during these short weeks.

—John B. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waggoner and son, Jerry, are spending a week's vacation in Colorado.

Let Him Have The Right-of-Way

WOULD YOU fight another guest for a seat at a party? Would you push the person ahead of you at a wedding reception? Would you shout at a woman to get out of your way on a dance floor?

Of course you wouldn't. Your manners are better than that. And the Texas Safety Association says if you were just as courteous on the highway, there would be a lot fewer accidents.

Here are six good ways to show good motor manners:

1. When some driver insists on the right-of-way, let him have it. --
2. Watch out for the driver who tries to beat the traffic light. Let him risk his life to save a few seconds, but don't risk yours.
3. When a driver passes on a hill or curve, or misjudges the distance ahead, slow down and let him get back in line.
4. If a driver behind is over-anxious to get around you, pull over and let him pass before he takes a chance and involves you in an accident, too.
5. At night, dim your lights for approaching cars.
6. Don't expect the right thing from the other fellow. Always give him a break, even when he's wrong.

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

What's Wrong With This?

—Two great men, each representing his nation, and two of the greatest powers on earth, today, America (The United States and The British Empire) have had an epoch-making conference on what should perhaps be called "Aims during this war and aims at the peace table."

And what's wrong with their conclusions? Here we record for the Hamlin community Roosevelt-Churchill's famous EIGHT POINTS:

1. They (United States and British Empire) seek no territorial or other aggrandisement.
2. (They) Seek no territorial changes that do not accord with the freely expressed wishes of the peoples concerned.
3. (They) Respect the right of all peoples to choose their own form of government and restoration of sovereign rights and self-government to those forcibly deprived of them.
4. They will endeavor, with due respect for their existing obligations to further the enjoyment by all states, great or small, victor or vanquished, of access, on equal terms, to the trade and to the raw materials of the world which are needed for their prosperity.
5. Full collaboration among nations in the economic field aimed at improved labor standards, economic advancement and social security.
6. After the final destruction of the Nazi tyranny, they hope to see established a peace which will afford to all nations the means of dwelling in safety within their own boundaries and which will afford assurance that all the men in all the lands may live out their lives in freedom from fear and want.
7. Freedom of the seas for all nations.
8. Abandonment of the use of force, and disarmament of nations which threaten, or may threaten, aggression outside of their frontiers pending establishment of a wider and permanent system of general security.

—T &amp; T—

Two Great

Men of History

—The EIGHT points laid down by Roosevelt-Churchill are but a restatement of what the English-speaking peoples have contended for during several hundred years.

—The EIGHT points are a condensation of the Wilson 14 Points of a quarter century ago. Who doubts that those points express the essence of the ideals of freedom of the millions of Englishmen and Americans and similar peoples the world around? Who denies that the English-speaking peoples have been the missionaries of Christianity and good will into every nook and corner of the globe for the past 150 years? What American can doubt the sincerity of the ideals expressed by the legal, constitutional leaders of the two great countries?

—The sum total effect of the "Deep Sea Conference" depends upon how solidly and how determinedly the masses of peoples making up the two great nations, stand up to make this family of nations a group of peaceful, prosperous governments. To make those eight points a reality will require an immense amount of toil, and sweat, and maybe blood and other sacrifices. If those ideals are worth anything to a disturbed world, it behooves Americans to hold them high and strive to make them good.

Keeping An Eye On O'Daniel

—Naturally people of Texas will give more than usual notice to their new Senator, W. Lee O'Daniel, for awhile, at least.

—Here are examples of "O'Daniel Dope"—In his Sunday morning broadcast, he meant to hand out a gag on Mr. Roosevelt, that he thought was funny. But E. B. Germany, Texas State Democratic Chairman, who plays with politicians, objected to the remarks about Mr. Roosevelt and apologized for the new Senator, saying it was "just in jest". Anyway the broadcasting station received a telegram from Germany, so the story goes, asking them to scratch out the remarks: "Maybe he (the President) had read what some of the Texas political newspapers printed about me and got the idea that I had horns, and thought it best to hide and take to the high seas before I arrived."

"The folks around here say it is the first time that any President ever got completely lost so the people did not know where he was."

—Now what right did Mr. Germany have to cut the O'Daniel radio address?

—Is Mr. Germany the State Censor for the State Senator? Does he assume the role of guardian angel for Mr. O'Daniel? To some folks, even down in Texas, slurring remarks about our President sound "cute". Let Mr. O'Daniel say what he pleases and take the consequences.

Another One

—This one is taken from the Washington Merry-Go-Round, by Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen, in the Wichita Daily Times, August 17. It runs like this:

"One of the first things Senator 'Pappy' O'Daniel did after riding from Texas to Washington in a day coach, was to try to get federal jobs for 15 members of his hillbilly band.

"His idea to bring the band to Washington, get Uncle Sam to pay them salaries, and then put them on the air every Sunday morning in a radio program which Pappy's friends say is sure to land him in the White House. He is angling with a cheese company to sponsor this program.

"First thing the new senator from Texas did was to contact John Mayfield, son of ex-Senator Mayfield of Texas, who is in charge of personnel for the general accounting office. Young Mayfield, however, intimated that it was not easy to get government jobs for a group of men whose chief qualifications were playing the fiddle. The general accounting office, he said, needed bookkeepers, not crooners.

"Next, Senator O'Daniel tried Jack Love, who hails from Anson, Texas, and who is in charge of personnel for the immigration division of the justice department. However, Love is being transferred to the inspection service, so had an excellent excuse not to undertake the onerous job of placing 15 hill-billies on the federal pay roll.

"At this point, Pappy turned to his old Texas pal, Jesse Jones.

"Simultaneously, Speaker Rayburn, also from Texas, got a telephone plea for help from Secretary of Commerce Jones. But the speaker was not sympathetic.

"You get 'em," he replied. "He's your senator. You had breakfast with him the morning he arrived."

"So now it is up to Jesse.

"Among Texas insiders it is reported that the big, gangling secretary of commerce will go down the line for his fellow Texan, because he sees the strength O'Daniel may have in lining up the Texas delegation in the next Democratic national convention, Jesse always has nursed vice presidential or presidential ambitions, and they die hard in his breast.

Made by the world's largest manufacturer of oil cloth, a new cotton wall covering rivaling in price the better grades of wall paper, is finding extensive use in leading hotels and apartment buildings. Providing a permanent and washable finish with structural as well as decorative advantages, the cotton covering has been specified in 5,000 houses now being constructed as a part of the national defense program. ### Big Disasters

THE TWO biggest disasters in the history of the United States were the Galveston, Texas, tidal wave in 1900, when 6,000 people were killed and the Johnstown, Pennsylvania, flood of 1889, which cost 2,200 lives.

Add both of these terrible disasters together and you get a total of 8,200—just two hundred more than the average number of persons killed EVERY MONTH by accidents last year in the United States.

The Texas Safety Association points out these day by day accident deaths are just as final as if the victims had been killed all at once in a fire or hurricane.

And we can stop accidents. Accidents are caused by carelessness, and carelessness is something we can control if we want to. Why not start today?

A Letter to the Soldier Selected For Service

The following letter appeared in the Stamford American last week. Read it.

Ft. Sam Houston, Texas
July 25, 1941

Editor, Our Army:

I am just one of the some 1,000,000 men who have been selected for service to our country during this period when war runs riot in all parts of the world and we face the prospect of having to defend our rights, freedom, and possessions from nations that are on a rampage.

As for me, I consider my call to Service an honor and a privilege, and I plan to stay put in this Army without any more than the usual soldier's growl for as long as my nation says it needs my services. I am one who is giving up plenty. It took me two years to find a job after I finished High School. I had two increases in salary—and then comes the draft. I wish I could count on returning home this December when my year is up, but I know I can't. So what do I do? I stay. And I'm proud to stay. When I do go home, I'm going with chin up, shoulders back, and head high. I'm going to be proud of my service—and I am sure my home town people back in Ohio will be proud of me.

Oh yes, I know we were told that we'd be home in a year. (An election was on, and politicians will promise almost anything to get elected.) A couple of pompous city politicians said we'd be back in a year when they marched us off to the railroad station. But these men are not America. We are America. You, fellow soldier, whether you be Selectee, Guardsman, or Regular, and you, fellow citizen, who go forth to your daily civilian job. You are America.

Every right, privilege and possession that we now possess was gained because someone was willing to fight for it. American freedom and liberty did not fall out of the clouds as manna from heaven. Others—way back—our forefathers—were willing to fight and struggle for these assets which you and I have inherited and which we have almost come to take for granted. Right now there are forces loose in the land that would take these heritages away from us. Are we going to whine and growl and whiney like a bunch of two-bit sissies just because we are called on to extend our period of service to our country for a few months? Are we going to give up what we've got without a struggle?

Let's look back at World War I, when over four million men dropped their civilian pursuits to answer the call to service. I wouldn't swap a rear rank private's place in that war for every dollar all nations spent on the conflict, if I had been forced to take a slacker's and draft dodger's run-out in a powder plant or ship building yard. Those dodgers drew wages, often even as waterboys, that enabled them to sport silk shirts, spats, and sleek roadsters. But they have spent the past 23 years trying to explain to others why they were more valuable in the powder plant than in the army. And few of them have ever been able to satisfy even their own consciences.

And I've seen these World War Soldiers return home, chin up, to take the lead in business, industry, and patriotic activity. I've seen them hit the ball and "sweat" out of hardship, depression, and tough luck, when the slackers and draft dodgers folded up at the first sign of hard going. They didn't have the guts to face adversity any more than they had the guts to tote a Springfield.

Hell yes, I'd like to return home at the end of my year, but if my country needs my services longer I'm not going to be guilty of whining and bellyaching because I can't. Ten years from now I want to be able to at least look my kids straight in the eyes when I try to teach them the true meaning of Americanism.

The reason I am sending this to Our Army is that I have read in the papers this week where some Soldiers have been cry-babbling over the prospect of having to do a bit more duty for our nation. I got my dander up—and wrote. I hope the Editor prints it. This is the way I feel and it is the way everyone in my organization feels.

Very Sincerely,

Corp. Chester A. Thornton

Tenancy—

A Human Problem

Farm tenancy has an honorable as well as a dishonorable record in the history of agriculture. Its strength or weakness depends on humanitarian factors.

For centuries, English farming has been 90 per cent tenant farming; in the United States 43 per cent of the farms are run by tenants. Mississippi leads with 73 per cent; Georgia, the Carolinas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Texas have more than 60 per cent of their farms run by tenants.

The Government, through expensive experimentation, is discovering that cooperative farms do not fit the American scheme. Families want their own livestock and equipment; they want to work for themselves. A recent survey shows that many tenant farmers prefer to have their capital in equipment and livestock. When landlord and tenant abide by the Golden Rule, a sound farming program results. But, by the same token, a plan which permits ambitious tenants to become independent through land ownership is in line with the American tradition of self-sufficiency, in its best sense, and also in conformity with Matt. 7:12.

Planters Gin Co. Has Home Man Mgr.

It has just appeared clear that the Planters Gin Co. has a wide-awake Manager. For some weeks, close observers have noticed the gin yard being cleaned and all the premises tidied up.

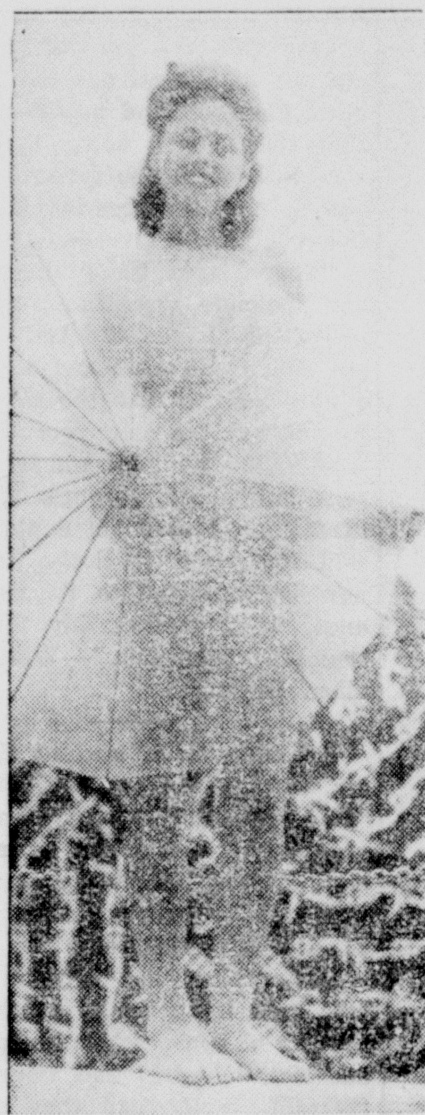

The man responsible is our own Hamlin boy, John D. Ferguson, who is the new manager of this Hamlin gin. John D. Ferguson is a Hamlin boy, born in the Neinda community, and he knows every person and detail of this whole community. He was bookkeeper for this gin last season, under one of Jones County's best ginners, Tom Holland, who now manages the Rochester Farmers Gin.

Ferguson knows cotton from planting to the market and will give the gin company valuable service. If one finds fault with this young man, just tell him and watch him floor you with his pleasant smile.

Keep Cool

Science says the best way to keep cool in the summer is to wear a large umbrella and nothing else. But science admits that such a costume isn't practical. The next best thing is to wear cotton underwear. It helps keep you cool. Cotton has higher powers of absorbency and evaporation than any other fibre, an important characteristic in comfortable summer clothes.

Question?

Why is it that Hamlin has had only a few mosquitoes, thus far, this summer?

Why should there be anywhere in the United States an "Organization of the Aircraft Warning Service"? We note they are to have "Observation Post Organizers".

How long will it take some Hamlin autoists to learn the ditches along the sides of our streets are good places to bog down cars when said ditches are full of water?

What has become of America's much talked of "bomb sight"? We haven't heard of it much lately.

"ASK US ANOTHER"

COME ON

...try your hand at this electric quiz

Q. How much out of each dollar of living expense does the average West Texas family spend for Electric Service?

A. In most homes less than two cents. This not only lights the house—it also runs the appliances. Washes and irons clothes, cleans the rugs, runs the radio and the refrigerator, toasts the bread, etc. The average family in this country spends about 21 times as much for food as for electricity; 11 times as much for housing; 8 times as much for clothing; and 5 times as much for transportation.

Q. Mrs. Jones says that household electric rates have been cut about in half during the last 10-15 years. Mrs. Smith says they are about the same as they used to be. Who is right?

A. Mrs. Jones is right. Your electric rate today is about half as much as it was just a few years ago. Today you get about twice as much electricity for the same money.

Q. What has made reduction in electric rates possible?

A. The American way of business operation of Your Electric Servant. Just as business operation of automobile factories has succeeded in giving us today a better automobile for less money than 10-15 years ago, so has business operation of this company succeeded in bringing better service to more and more people at less and less cost.

Q. What do we mean by "business operation?"

A. Business Operation means employment of men and women trained and experienced in rendering service free from the influence of political control. Our organization of more than 1,000 people average around 10 years of experience with this company alone. Department heads, providing leadership and guidance in all work, have been with the company from 15 to 25 years. The training of all has been centered on serving YOU better at lower cost. They are not dependent on political votes to hold their jobs.

Final Date For New Grower Wheat Allotment

C. H. Young, chairman of the Jones County AAA Committee, has been advised by the State office that November 30, 1941, is the closing date of accepting requests for 1942 new grower wheat allotments.

Farmers who have not planted any wheat for harvest during 1939, 1940, and 1941, but desire to plant wheat for the first time in 1942, are considered new growers. The acreage which new growers will receive is taken from a county reserve which in most cases, represents approximately 3 per cent of the county allotment.

All farms receiving wheat acreage allotments for the first time this year, regardless of the size of the acreage, will be classified as non-allotment farms. Regulations also state that the larger of the wheat acreage allotment or 15 acres may be harvested without incurring deductions. Non-allotment farms will not be eligible for either conservation or parity payments, but in case marketing quotas are in effect loans may be made on that portion of the wheat in excess of the farm marketing quota.

Requests for new grower allotments should be filed in the county AAA office as soon as practicable, Young pointed out, since no application may be filed after the closing date.

Jones County wheat growers will vote in a national referendum before June 10, 1942, to determine whether they want to continue marketing quotas, according to P. C. Wylie, Secretary of the Jones County AAA committee.

The announcement, which was made several days ago by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard, gives farmers sufficient time to plan their 1942 plantings.

According to the AAA Act, a proclamation must be made prior to May 15 of any marketing year when it appears the wheat supply will exceed a normal year's domestic consumption and exports by more than 35 per cent. The referendum must be approved by two-thirds of the farmers voting before quotas are in effect for that year's crop.

"The carry-over we will have on hand July 1, 1942, will be one of the largest on record since our exports have been reduced and we are harvesting an above-normal yield this year," the AAA official explained.

Wheat quotas, in effect for the first time this year, were approved recently by 94 per cent vote in Texas. Jones county wheat growers approved quotas by 97 per cent favorable vote.

Hamlin Produce Man Advocates Farmers Co-op. Poultry Ass'n

To Farmers, Poultrymen, and all who have produce for sale: We hear and read lots of "How to Improve the Produce Market".—Let us look at the situation from a business standpoint.

I have been in the poultry business for 20 years, in this part of Texas, and have paid to the farmers as much money as any other man in this kind of business, and I know that there is but one solution that will get the job done.

WE MUST HAVE A POULTRY MARKETING ASSOCIATION FOR SEVERAL COUNTIES.

We should organize a Cooperative Poultry Association for at least four counties, including Jones, Fisher, Scurry, and Stonewall, maybe others, and cut down the present overhead expense that the farmers are today paying, and put the money saved in your own pockets.

Why not arrange to sell what we have for the market, F.O.B. the Central Plant, and let the buyer pay the freight. This plan will be explained and other correct figures given from other Poultry Cooperatives soon. Think about this and be ready to attend a meeting when it is arranged for this part of West Texas. Let us make the poultry business your business—put it under a system that every stockholder will understand.

You elect your own directors and a manager who will hold no fear or show any favor to any wholesale company.

Look at your cooperative gin associations. They get refunds on the amount of business they do, and why not the poultryman?

Now, folks, this will be up to you. You have more right to be in business for your interest than the North has to sit up down here and tell you what to do for them. We live in the heart of the Texas poultry belt—Wait till you hear more about this and join us to put over a profitable Cooperative Poultry Association.

Yours truly,

R. M. GRUBB,
Hamlin, Texas.

NEW BILL OF RIGHTS FOR A LASTING PEACE

There are eleven basic rights of men in the Declaration of Rights that famed author H. G. Wells offers in the current Rotarian magazine. These, plus the tried and tested institution of a consolidated opposition, "dovetail into the plan of creative political action I am putting before you," he writes.

First is the right to live, "within the measure of these (natural) resources and without distinction of race, color, or professed beliefs or opinions, to the nourishments, covering and medical care needed to realize his (man's) full possibilities." Second is the right of protection of minors. The third "right" is a duty—a man's duty to the community within his beliefs and capabilities. "To perform no social duty whatsoever is to remain unenfranchised and under guardianship."

The next five rights in the declaration are the right to knowledge, freedom of thought and worship, the right to work, the right in personal property, and freedom of movement. "A man may move freely about the world at his own expense—So long as by his movement he does not intrude upon the private domain of any other citizen—he shall have the right to come and go wherever he chooses."

Personal liberty, so long as one does not forfeit it by illegal actions under the other rights, is another inalienable right under this declaration. So is freedom from violence. And lastly, in man is the right of lawmaking.

"The fount of legislation," concludes Wells, "in a free world is the whole people, and since life flows on constantly to new citizens, no generation can, in whole or in part, surrender or delegate this legislative power which is inalienably inherent in mankind."

BE A SPORT!

Good sportsmanship is needed as never before. If we can put it into practice—in our homes as well as in our business and professional life—perhaps, in time, we'll set such an example that whole nations will follow!—Ray Giles, noted business adviser, in the current Rotarian Magazine.

Twenty-five Hundred Men Called for Sept.

State Selective Service Headquarters today announced the Army's twenty-third and twenty-fourth calls on Texas' 351 local boards for 2,571 trainees.

On the twenty-third call, 2,227 white trainees will be sent to induction stations during the period September 23 through September 30. On September 22, to fill the twenty-fourth call, 344 colored trainees will report for induction.

According to General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, Texas has been called upon to furnish 36,202 trainees since the first call last November. The total number called, he said, had been pro-rated among the white and colored registrants on a basis of total registration as follows: 30,505 white trainees and 5,697 colored trainees.

The Jones County Local Board received call No. twenty-three which was for five white men, for September 30, to go to Fort Bliss; call No. twenty-four was for no men.

Famous Quotations

"When I was in Cairo, I secured a few grains of wheat that had slumbered for more than 3,000 years in an Egyptian tomb. As I looked at them, this thought came into my mind: If one of those grains of wheat had been planted on the bank of the Nile the year after it grew and all its lineal descendants had been planted and replanted from that time until now, its progeny would today be sufficiently numerous to feed the teeming millions of the world.

"There is in the grain of wheat an invisible something which has power to discard the body that we see and, from earth and air, fashion a new body so like the old that we cannot tell the one from the other. And if the grain of wheat can thus pass unimpaired through 3,000 resurrections, I shall not doubt that my soul has power to clothe itself in a new body, suited to its new existence, when this earthly frame has crumbled into dust."—William Jennings Bryan.

An emperor of ancient times, after winning a great battle, said this "One more such victory, and I will be ruined." His losses of men and material had been so great that victory left his people weary, exhausted, and low in morale.

Some think that may be Hitler's fate even if he finally subdues Russia. At a conservative estimate, he has lost, in killed and wounded, 1,000,000 men, and they are the cream of the Reichswehr. In the meantime, his main opponent, the English, are suffering almost no casualties and are growing stronger fast.

Cotton House A Reality

Heralded by the National Cotton Council as one of the most promising potential outlets for cotton in quantity, houses made of cotton are becoming realities. Shown above is a demonstration cotton house displayed at the Department of Agriculture in Washington. Easily and quickly erected, the house has both interior and exterior walls made of fire resistant, waterproof canvas covered plywood. The roof is made of the same material. Cotton blanket insulation, serving both to keep the house cool and to deaden outside sounds, is used in the ceiling and side walls. Cotton materials were used throughout in furnishing the house. Approximately 650 pounds of cotton were required for walls and insulation alone.

The Garden Club's August Project

ALLEYS!! What does the word bring to your mind?—Ash heaps, tin cans, open garbage containers—a breeding ground for mosquitos, flies, and other insects,—and weeds and brush? Or is the mental picture the scene of a pleasant vista of cleanliness, covered garbage containers and beds of hardy flowers—a pleasant place to talk over the back fence to that nice neighbor across the alley who makes such good doughnuts and cookies.

THE POINT IS...August is the month to seriously begin planning and work to have an attractive alley for next spring. The Fall Cleaning and Weed Cutting in Alleys should begin NOW.

Larkspur, poppies, hollyhock, annual phlox and morning glory seed should be planted at this time in order to insure early blooms for the spring.

There is no reason why the alley should be the problem child of a city and with efforts being exerted at this season, there will be no unightly alleys in our city when, come spring.

Baptist Brotherhood

To Observe Loyalty Month

In the regular meeting last Monday night, the Men's Brotherhood, laymen's organization of the Baptist Church, voted to join in the South-wide observance of September as Loyalty Month, during which time an attempt will be made to secure the attendance of all the laymen of the church at all of the services, and to deepen the interest and increase the loyalty to the church. September will be observed as Loyalty month by Brotherhood organizations throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

To climax the observance, an effort to secure a record attendance at the September meeting will be made. Commander General Keys of the Forty-fifth Division of the United States Army stationed at Camp Berkeley, who is an outstanding Baptist Layman, will be invited to address the Brotherhood at this meeting, which will be held on Monday, September 22.

At the meeting last Monday night, Dr. Carl Rister, Professor of History at Oklahoma University, addressed the men on "The Two Frontiers" emphasizing the place that the church will hold in the coming world order, which is to come from the present chain of world events. His message was one very fitting for the time in which we live, and of great interest and inspiration to the men.

The Test of A Man

The place to take the test of a man is not the forum or the field, not the market place or the amen corner, but at his own fireside. There he lays aside his mask and you may judge whether he be imp or angel, king or cur, hero or humbug. I care not what the world says of him, whether it crown him with bays or pelt him with bad eggs; I care never a copper what his reputation or religion may be; if his babes dread his homecoming and his better half has to swallow her heart every time she has to ask him for a five dollar bill he's a fraud of the first water, even though he prays night and morn until he's black in the face, and howls hallelujah till he shakes the eternal hills. But, if his children rush to the front gate to meet him, and love's own sunshine illumines the face of his wife when she hears his footstep, you may take it for granted that he's true gold, for his home's a heaven, and the humbug never gets that close to the great white throne of God. I can forgive much in that fellow mortal who would rather make men swear than women weep; who would rather have the hate of the whole he-world than the contempt of his wife—who would rather call anger to the eyes of a King than fear to the face of a child.—Wm. Cowper Brann.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday night the congregation of the Baptist Church will go to the Methodist Church, and the Baptist pastor will conduct the evening service there. Some time ago, Bro. Harrell supplied in the Sunday night Service at the Baptist Church, and his congregation came to visit with the Baptist congregation. Both Baptist and Methodist congregations were well represented in the service. Let us show our friendship and spirit of cooperation with our fellow Christians by having a large number of Baptists present at the Methodist Church Sunday night.

There are only two more Sundays in this Associational Year, which closes on September 1. Let's raise our Sunday School average attendance as much as possible by having BETTER THAN AVERAGE attendance on these two Sundays.

Special attention should be called to the fact that for several weeks to come each Wednesday night prayer meeting will be given to a consideration of some special phase of our work. We urge that all members of the church who possibly can be present for the discussion of the aims and goals and the means of reaching them in all our church unit organizations. H. E. East, Pastor

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jackson and son, Buford, are visiting for a week in the home of a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tanner at Dumas.

The Baptist meeting came to a successful close last Sunday night. Four came for baptism and were baptized in the Baptist Church at Hamlin on Sunday afternoon.

Men have started work repairing the two gins in McCaulley and all machinery will be tip top when the cotton starts rolling.

We see in the press where a large company in Chicago that heretofore have used trucks for transportation have turned back to the old faithful horses and wagons due to the rise in gasoline and truck parts, it might be well for all of us to be looking for a good horse and buggy. In fact, the old hitching post may be in style before long. Who cares?

Floyd Curtiss, age 62, died at Floydada Sunday, August 17. Mr. Curtiss had been a resident of this community for many years and had only recently moved to Floydada. Survivors are two sons, Burl Curtiss of McCaulley and Norris Curtiss of Big Spring; two daughters, Mrs. W. H. Mayo of Floydada and Mrs. W. H. Potter of Big Spring. Those attending the funeral from McCaulley were Mr. and Mrs. Alf Hemphill, Mr. W. B. Mayo, and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Curtiss. Burial was in the Floydada cemetery. Rev. Dean, pastor of a Baptist Church near Amarillo, and an old time friend of the family, conducted the funeral services.

Mrs. Ramon Humphries, age 36, passed away in a Sweetwater hospital Monday, August 18. Survivors are her husband and two daughters, Peggy Jane, age 10, and a baby girl only a few days old. Other survivors are her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Jones of McCaulley; three brothers, C. D., Clifford, and Louie, and two sisters, Mrs. L. B. Miers and Mrs. Tom Nall, all of McCaulley. A host of other relatives and friends mourn her passing. Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church on Tuesday, August 19, conducted by the Rev. Johnnie Price former Methodist pastor at McCaulley, assisted by Rev. C. E. Dick, Baptist pastor. Barrow Funeral Home of Hamlin had charge. Mrs. Humphries was before her marriage L. E. Jones and moved to this community with her parents when just a girl. Pallbearers were R. L. Miers, George Maberry, Glenn Henderson, Ray Maberry, Willard Maberry and George Darden. Flower girls were the wives of the pallbearers.

Rev. and Mrs. Johnnie Price and little son spent Tuesday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pickron. Bro. Price is Methodist pastor at Coahoma.

Mrs. Vernon Harris, formerly of McCaulley, is visiting for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peacock, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Humphries of Lampasas, Texas, are spending a few days in the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Humphries.

Sorry that we have failed to get the names of all out of town relatives and friends of the Humphries and Jones families who were here for the funeral of Mrs. Humphries. Johnnie James Maberry, of Houston, is spending a few days in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Maberry.

Marvin Davison has returned to his home after a trip to Dallas, Houston, Galveston, and other Texas cities.

O-O-O-O

Shall America feed starving Europe after the War? We believe that millions of our citizens should be fed in America before we send food to war stricken Europe.

Perhaps there wouldn't be so many wars if the leaders of other countries were made to realize that they would have to feed their own after each war, but we already hear that Mr. Hoover and others plan to take care of starving Europe as soon as the war is over. What a pity that Mr. Hoover doesn't look around in our own United States before taking steps to feed those in other parts of the world. It is a shame and disgrace that people in a land of plenty do without food and the very necessities of life and still that's what is happening in the United States, and yet some are yelling to send food to Europe. If some of the big shots who plead for food and clothes for people in Europe would take time out to look over the slums of American cities and provide jobs for the able-bodied and feed those who are victims of circumstances, we could then prove to Dictator controlled nations that Democracy will work, but as long as fingers are pointed to a Democratic form of Government that is blessed with plenty and still some of our citizens go hungry, so long will people of other lands doubt the efficiency of our form of Government.

A DARDEN-O-GRAM.

McCaulley Methodists Starting A Revival

Arrangements have been made for our revival meeting to start Sunday, August 24.

REV. CECIL TUNE

We have secured the services of Rev. Cecil Tune, pastor of the Trent Methodist Church, to do the preaching. This good man, a strong gospel preacher has been with us in revivals before, and we know he will come filled with the Spirit and will deliver some great messages to all who come and hear him. Brother Tune is a consecrated young man, who preaches straight from the Word and if you enjoy old fashioned preaching, make your arrangements to come and be with us in every service if possible.

Sunday would be a good time to start going to Sunday School, if you have not already been going. Bring all your family and enjoy the lessons, starting at 10:00 A. M. Preaching services at 11:00 A. M.

Our song services will be led by Brother S. A. Johnson. He will appreciate your full cooperation in the singing. Everybody who can sing or who will try to sing has a welcome to worship with us in the song services.

We earnestly solicit and need your prayers in this revival period. McCaulley, like every community in America, should meet for a period in humble worship and reconsecration to God. Let us extend a cordial welcome to every one in this community to join with us in our meeting that starts Sunday, August 24.

Sincerely,

Cecil E. Ottinger, Pastor.

Talk of Cost

ALL THESE new taxes are making you dig pretty deeply into your pocket, aren't they? But you pay them willingly because they are for a good cause—defense of our American way of life from an aggressor.

But do you know what accidents cost the people of the United States even in peacetime? And the money isn't spent for a cause—every cent of it is wasted! Here is our accident tax bill for last year, as announced by the Texas Safety Association.

$113 per second! from car accidents!

$9,500,000 per day! from car accidents!

$3,500,000,000 for the year! from car accidents!

Can you afford to pay your share of THIS tax bill?

To improve the golden moment of opportunity and catch the good that is within our reach is the great art of life.—Samuel Johnson.

Have you ever watched the high-trapeze performers at a circus and remarked: "I wouldn't do that for all the money in the world!"

Well, look down below. See that net? Even though many years of training have perfected their skill, they haven't forgotten the safety factor! They know that someday there may be a mistake, an error in judgement, a slip—and the net is ready.

The Texas Safety Association says you can take a lesson from the man on the flying trapeze. You never get too good to be careful. Whatever you do—at work, in your car, at home—give yourself a margin of safety—just in case!

We are very happy to announce this week that our meeting will start Friday, August 22. Every one has a special invitation. We hope to have a large number there every day. Rev. Swendal from Benjamin will hold the meeting and Mrs. Ida V. Cooley from Lubbock will play for the meeting.

The League had a very interesting program Sunday night. Those who took part in the program were: Virginia Lee Cooley and Verna Faye Tayer, and following the program was a piano solo by little Miss Kraigolene Besire. Rev. Alvis Cooley filled his appointment in the pulpit Sunday.

Mr. Timons Malone, son of Rev. and Mrs. L. K. Malone, is here visiting from Phoenix, Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cooley and children from Lamesa have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cooley.

The League had a social Thursday night at the church. After the games were played, hot dogs and punch were served. Everyone had a nice time.

A good meal was served and the congressman gave the waiter a generous tip.

"Thank yo' suh," the waiter said, "And if yo' got any frien's what can't read, yo' jus' send 'em to me, suh!"

In speaking of the Philippines, it is correct to say, "the Philippines is," according to Joaquim M. Elizalde, resident commissioner of the Philippines to the United States. The name refers to the Commonwealth of the Philippines and is therefore singular.
